

Walking in my sleep

Lyrics: Paul Oxley Music: Niklas Rosström.

Tonight I feel the darkness,
the shadows all around me.
They seem to see right through me now.

Tearing at the walls that hold me but they're closing in, Sometimes I wanna scream inside, but I still let you win.

Walking in my sleep
reaching for a light that I can't see.

Walking in my sleep
Running from the ghosts
inside of me
I can't close my eyes
I don't wanna fall to deep Someone better wake me up and get me out of here

The painted smile is fading, and tears run down the canvas. the colours changing with the light.

and it's really hard to hide the pain I'm feeling, everytime I think of leaving, so I just try to keep believing but I'm....

Walking in my sleep
reaching for a light that I can't see.
Walking in my sleep
Running from the ghosts inside of me

I can't close my eyes
Someone better wake me up and get me out of here

I know this is just a symptom, and I don't want to play the victim Wake me up before I fall apart... and it's really hard to hide the pain I'm feeling, everytime I think of leaving, so I just try to keep believing but something is dying inside.

Walking in my sleep
reaching for a light that I can't
see.
Running from the ghosts inside of me

I can't close my eyes
Someone better wake me up and get me out of here

Walking in my sleep
Stumbling in the dark
Walking in my sleep
Hiding from the truth
Walking in my sleep
